

Captain Shri Madiwal is the Director, Marine Operations and Harbour Master of the Vancouver Fraser Port Authority. Captain Madiwal is responsible for providing leadership and guidance in all facets of port marine logistics and operations, ensuring safe disciplined and efficient cargo flow and environmental protection within ports navigational jurisdiction.

Captain Madiwal, holds a Master Mariner certificate and has a Master's in Business Administration from Simon Fraser University. Prior to joining the port authority in 2019, Captain Madiwal held the position of Director, Fleet Operations at Marine Atlantic Inc. a federal crown corporation operating ferries between provinces of Nova Scotia and Newfoundland. Before his time at Marine Atlantic, he worked as a Marine Superintendent managing a fleet of 15 ocean-going vessels. Captain Madiwal's commanded Aframax tankers, and his sea career includes 15 years of international experience on bulk carriers and oil tankers.